FOR CONGRESS.

We are authorized to announce JUDGE JOHN W. HUGHES, of Mercer county, as a candidate to represent the Eighth Congressional District of Kentucky in Congress to succeed Hon G G Gilbert, subject to the action of the Democratic party.

We are authorized to announce HARVEY HELM, of Lincoln county, as a candidate to represent the Eighth Congressional District of Kentucky in Congress to succeed Hon G G Gilbert, subject to the action of the Democratic party.

The assessment of $40,000, to hold the Democratic State primary, is enormous, and we might say an unjust method, because it clearly creates property qualifications to hold office whereby some capable men are barred from serving the dear people. Many of our old statesmen could not enter the contest. It would be better to have the state pay the expenses or return to the old method of nominating by conventions, thus giving everybody a chance to enter the race. This is democratic.

With an Immigration law which permits nearly 1,000,000 of people to be landed here annually, without more restrictions as to education or moral fitness, we are confronted by a more serious problem than the trust question, the race question, the labor trouble or anything that destroys our peace and prosperity. A lake of pure water can easily be polluted by permitting fone water to flow into it.

A Bank in Chicago closed doors with a deficit of $1,000,000 and an absent president and cashier. One depositor dropped dead another killed himself, thus demonstrating the fact that he thought more of his money than he did of his life.

The wave of reform should roll on until State and national governments are taken from the control of big interests that work against the general welfare.

The revolution in Russia results from the fact that the people have liberty enough, and we may have another here because we have too much liberty.

The Democrats will nominate Bryan and the Republicans Roosevelt, and we will have a race to the finish.

Got Back at Him.

The lady was making some remarks about the kind of clothing some other ladies at church had on. "The finest garment a woman can wear," said her husband, "is the mantle of charity."

In These Hurring Days.
Passenger (on trunk line of railway) — Somehow the scenery along here looks different from what it used to. Conductor — Yes; the road used to run around this hill. We go through it now, in a deep cut. It cost the company $50,000 and two months' work to make the cut, but it shortens our running time nearly three seconds. — Chicago Tribune.

Some Idea of His Wealth.

Host (showing him around) — Twenty-five years ago, when the man that owns this block of buildings came to town, he hadn't a hundred dollars in the world.

Guest — And now?

Host — And now? By George, sir, he could afford to hold the job of ambassador to Great Britain. — Chicago Tribune.

Only One Who Did.

Grayce — I don't see why you picked out such a fellow as George to marry. You know dozens of better looking, brainer and richer men. Gladys — That's very true. Grayce — Then why are you going to marry George? Gladys — Simply because he has asked me to, dear. — Chicago Sun.

Woman's Way.

Dealer — All society women are going crazy over tea cigarettes. I can't account for it, as they are both unpleasant and injurious. Friend — Injurious, are they? Dealer — Very. Friend — That accounts for the craze. — Louisville Courier-Journal.

Infant Logic.

Dottie — My mamma had another husband before she married papa, but he died. Willie — Gee! ain't you glad he did? Dottie — Why? Willie — 'Cause if he'd lived, he'd a' been your stepfather, an' they ain't nice! — Cleveland Leader.

Their Rewards.

"Who is that poorly clad fellow over there?" "That's one of the bravest soldiers of the civil war. A maker of history." "And who is that stout, affluent looking chap talking to him?" "That's Scribbleum, a maker of fiction." — Houston Post.

A NEW MOVEMENT.

Effort to Extend the Scope and Usefulness of the Travelers' Aid Work.

The Boston Young Women's Christian association has received a visit of inquiry from Miss Bullis in behalf of Miss Grace Dodge, representing a new movement in New York for the extension of travelers' aid work. Ultimately it is expected that a national organization will be formed. This inquiry has emphasized the fact that the Boston association is doing a larger work than any similar organization in the world, says the Christian World. The steamships from the Canadian provinces and from home and foreign ports are covered and when requested, the depots also. Several thousand vessels are met in the course of a year and numerous women and girls are guided to their destinations in Boston and vicinity, and in trips to near and distant states throughout the country. The protection afforded is said to be not only a security to those aided and their friends, but a guard against the designs of evil men and institutions. The travelers are furnished lodgings and meals. When needed their tickets are authenticated friends en route and on arrival at destination are furnished. The work is regarded as a preventive, saving and rescue work, incessantly needed. The Boston association is in receipt of numerous applications for trained organizers and teachers of the various departments of association work. These applications have come not only from different parts of our country, but from foreign and missionary lands. Several graduates of the department of Christian work are said to be laboring with success in foreign lands. Inquiries from England have led to publication in England of accounts of the work of the association's school of domestic science and Christian work, and communications have been received which state that "no institution of an exactly similar kind" exists in England, "yet the need for such an institution for girls of all classes who have left school is very great." Residential colleges in connection with the various polytechnics and Young Women's Christian associations are advocated in England.

REVIVAL IN BULGARIA.

Report of the Results of General Conference of Protestant Churches.

"The recent general conference of the Protestant churches in Bulgaria, held in Philippopolis, the latter part of October," writes Rev. Mr. Popoff, "was a sounding note for a revival in Bulgaria. The conference was opened with a detailed account of the religious revivals now going on in Wales, England and elsewhere. The writer pointed out how do we stand in reference to these revivals." While our national church and press have not taken notice at all of what the Holy Spirit is doing in other lands, we Protestants are hoping and praying for a similar revival in Bulgaria. This was the one all-important theme of every meeting, and many earnest prayers were sent to the throne of God for this object. The conference was largely attended. Many a village was represented by a single new follower of the cross. It was a spiritual sight to look upon the sturdy peasants who had come from amidst persecutions. They were eager to catch every word of prayer and speech that was spoken. An ex-priest of the Greek church, who had just excommunicated himself from the priesthood, attended all the meetings, and took part in testimony and prayer. From previous experience we have learned to be rather suspicious of such converts."

NEW HEAD OF Y. M. C. A.

Lord Kinnaird Chosen as the Successor of the Late Sir George Williams.

The national council of the Young Men's Christian association meeting in London has unanimously appointed Lord Kinnaird president and successor to the late Sir George Williams. For over 30 years Lord Kinnaird has been actively associated with the Young Men's Christian association work. In his early days the new president was a famous athlete, and is very popular with young men.

Times Have Changed.

One of the daily papers calls attention to the fact that a few years ago the reading of the Bible and Protestant worship were both forbidden in the Philippine islands. Now Methodists, Baptists, Presbyterians, Congregationalists and Episcopalians have churches and missions in the islands, and many thousand copies of the Scriptures are distributed.

CALL

Congressional Primary

1. A primary election is hereby called for Saturday, the first day of September, 1906, in all the voting precincts in the Eighth Congressional District of Kentucky, at the regular voting places, between the hours of 6 o'clock a m and four o'clock p m for the purpose of selecting a Democratic candidate for Representative in Congress in said District.

2. All Democrats who are residents of said District, and who are legal voters on November 6, 1906, will be permitted to vote in their respective precincts, and are invited and requested to do so.

3. Every candidate who desires to have his name printed on the ballots to be used in said primary must deposit with the Chairman of this Committee, on or before 12 o'clock—midnight—fifteen days before the date for holding said primary, the sum of seven hundred dollars, to be used in defraying the expenses of holding said primary election, and at the same time of making said deposit each candidate must give written notice to said Chairman that he desires to be a candidate at said election, and notice to the Chairman shall be notice to the Committee.

4. In all those counties having cities in which the law requires the registration of voters, the Democratic Committee of such counties, or the Chairman, thereof, is authorized to cause the names of Democrats registered at the last general registration, to be copied into separate books, as is required by law.

5. Said election shall be held, in all respects, as is required by law for holding regular primary elections, and a uniform ballot shall be used in every precinct; and the Chairman of this Committee is hereby authorized and directed to cause to be printed, bound and distributed to the various Chairmen of the County Committees the ballots for each county. He is further directed to purchase and distribute to the Chairmen of the County Committees all the necessary paraphernalia for holding said primary election.

6. The Democratic County Committee of each county shall appoint the officers in each precinct to hold the election, and they are to be selected from lists furnished by the candidates at least ten days before said election; and to be as nearly equally divided as possible as to Judges, Clerks and Sheriffs, among the various candidates. The officers of said primary election will, when the polls are closed, proceed at once to count the votes cast for each person for said office, and after counting the votes, they will return to the boxes, sealing up the boxes and the Sheriffs of the election precincts, will, by next Monday morning, carry and deposit the boxes with the Chairman of the County Committee, at the court house in the respective counties. The officers of the election at each precinct will make a written statement of the number of votes cast for each person voted for, for the said office, and will place said statement in an envelope and deposit it in the respective ballot boxes.

7. The precinct ballot boxes and all returns are to be made to the Chairman of the County Committee, and if he is not in the county, to the Secretary of the County Committee, at the court house in the time required by law, to wit: within two days after said election.

8. And on next day after said returns have been made, the County Committee shall meet and canvass the returns, and certify the same to the Chairman of the District Committee of the Eighth Congressional District, which District Committee shall, on Wednesday, the fifth day of September, 1906, at 10 o'clock a m in the city of Nicholasville, Jessamine county, Kentucky, meet and canvass the returns, declare the result and issue a certificate of nomination to the successful candidate.

9. The Secretary of this Committee is directed to give public notice of this election, as is required by law, and without delay. 10. In the event there is a surplus remaining, after defraying the expenses of said primary, it shall be returned to those by whom it was paid in, in the same proportion in which it was paid by them; and if there should be a deficit, then the candidates shall be assessed to supply such deficit. Provided, however, if no more than one candidate shall have complied with the conditions herein imposed, by Aug 19, 1906, then the Chairman of the District is directed to reconvene the Committee, as soon thereafter as practicable at Nicholasville, Ky, and to declare such candidate the regular nominee of the Democratic party for said office, and to issue to him a certificate of nomination, and the primary election herein ordered will not be held.

11. The order on the ballot in which the names of the candidates who may enter this primary shall be printed, shall be determined by lot. 12. No registration shall be required in towns or cities where no registration has yet been had under the general election law.
